Dear Libby,

Allow me to commend you for your professional consulting and coaching service with the management staff of Coldwell Banker Uptown Realty this past year. As a first time recipient of management coaching assistance I felt fortunate to have someone of your high standards and abilities to work with.

Listening skills, timely follow-through and prompt attention to detail are very important in my business. I was pleased that you feel the same as demonstrated by your service throughout the entire consulting and coaching process. I look forward to working with you again for additional goal development and manager training. Thank you.

With kindest regards,
